Check Point vSEC for Microsoft Azure Test Drive

Are you ready to try out Check Point vSEC for Microsoft Azure?

Check Point vSEC for Microsoft Azure seamlessly extends advanced threat prevention security to protect customer assets in the Azure cloud from malware and other sophisticated threats. As a Microsoft Azure certified solution, vSEC enables you to easily secure your workloads, data, and assets while providing secure connectivity across your cloud and on-premises environments.

If you are interested in migrating workloads to Azure or already have an Azure deployment, the vSEC for Microsoft Azure test drive now makes it easier and more affordable than ever to try the solution out for yourself. The Check Point vSEC for Microsoft Azure Test Drive is available from the Azure Marketplace:

https://azuremarketplace.microsoft.com/en-us/marketplace/apps/checkpoint.vsec.

This self-contained and fully functioning demo environment provides everything you need to get started using vSEC, including user guide documentation and three full hours of operations. No credit card is necessary and the only requirement is a Microsoft account. If you do not have a Microsoft account, you can create one at https://signup.live.com.

Check Point vSEC for Microsoft Azure Trial and Evaluation

For users who require a longer period, a vSEC for Microsoft Azure trial can also be obtained on the Azure Marketplace:

https://azuremarketplace.microsoft.com/en-us/marketplace/apps/checkpoint.vsec

To begin a longer trial of vSEC for Azure, select the "GET IT NOW" option. Check Point provides a free 15-day vSEC trial license but you are responsible for any Azure resource fees. If you are a new Azure subscriber, you may qualify for a $200 credit[*], effectively making your trial free of cost.

To use the free vSEC trial license, in the Deployment settings (step 2) of your vSEC gateway deployment make sure you choose the "Bring Your Own License" option as the license type.

To extend your vSEC trial beyond 15 days, please consult your local sales team in order to obtain an evaluation license.
