How to fix Check Point VPN connection on MacBook Catalina

- 1. Open Settings ()
- 2. Click on Security & Privacy -> Privacy -> Full Disk Access (scroll down to find Full Disk Access)

3. Click on the lock icon and enter your password and then click on the + icon

4. Choose End point Security VPN and click on Open

5. Click again on +

6. Click on Application on the top and change it to Macintosh HD (or what labels your main disk)

		••• < >	Security & Privacy	Q Search
			Applications 🗘)	Q. Search
Favorites Applications Constraints Applications Documents Dominoads Locations Red Orange Yellow Green Blue Blue	App Store Addomator Addomator Addomator Calculator Calculator Calculator Calculator Constats Dictionary Endpoint Security VPN SET Remote_istrator Agent Cr. FaceTime Find My Fort Book Gaogle Chrome Minde Gapture Minde Suptree Minde Suptree Minde Suptree Minde Suptree
	•					Cancel Open
		Click the lock to prevent f	urther changes. Security & Privacy	Advanced ?
			Macintosh HD 🗘)	Q Search
Favorites Favorites A Applications Desktop Desktop Documents Documents Downloads Locations Faus Red Orange Veliow Green Blue	Applications > Ubrary > System > Users >
- Diue						Cancel Open
		Click the lock to prevent f	further changes.	Advanced ?

 According to the following image, please add /Library/Application Support/Checkpoint/Endpoint Connect/TracSrvWrapper to the Full Disk Access.

8. Try connecting to VPN